

WE'RE HIRING

ASSOCIATE MINISTER

For the English Congregation

Horsley Park Christian Church is seeking an Associate Minister to shepherd the English Congregation of the church. The ideal candidate will be: 1) of good character and well respected in their community, 2) biblically driven in their manner of leading and decision making and 3) able to work in a small church context. The role is preferably full-time but we are also open to those seeking part-time employment.

The primary responsibilities of the Associate Minister are:

- To provide direction and spiritual encouragement to all members of the English Congregation in their faith.
- To work in harmony the Diaconate and the Associate Minister of the Chinese Congregation in setting out the vision of the church in accordance with the teaching of the Bible.
- To lead the congregation in carrying out the vision of the church in accordance with the teaching of the Bible.
- To coordinate and oversee the weekly church service. This includes planning sermon series for the year, filling the preaching roster (by your own preaching or coordinating with external preachers) and coordinating special occasion services.
- To provide ongoing discipleship to the congregation, especially the English Ministry Team Leaders.
- To provide pastoral care to the congregation where needed.
- To conduct the sacrament of communion regularly and baptism as required.
- To represent the church in the community and wider Christian circles.

In addition to the responsibilities above, any skills in the following areas will be highly regarded:

- Mandarin or Hakka language skills.
- Website design and maintenance.
- IT and AV skills for running a small church set up.
